many social protection programmes including cash transfers public works programmes and asset transfers target women as main beneficiaries or recipients of benefits extending social protection to rural populations has great potential for fostering rural women s economic empowerment however to tap into this potential more needs to be done there is much scope for making social protection policies and programmes more gender sensitive and for better aligning them with agricultural and rural development policies to help address gender inequalities recognizing this potential and capitalizing on existing evidence fao seeks to enhance the contribution of social protection to gender equality and women s empowerment by providing country level support through capacity development knowledge generation and programme support to move forward this agenda fao has developed the technical guidance toolkit on gender sensitive social protection programmes to combat rural poverty and hunger the toolkit is designed to support sp and gender policy makers and practitioners in their efforts to systematically apply a gender lens to sp programmes in ways that are in line with global agreements and fao commitments to expand inclusive sp systems for rural populations the toolkit focuses on the role of sp in reducing gendered social inequalities and rural poverty and hunger a practical guide to program development and grant writing this text describes the process of developing a good idea into a sustainable and meaningful program related to occupational therapy principles and client needs this is the report of the consultation on aquaculture for sustainable rural development jointly organised by fao and naca in chiang rai thailand on 29 31 march 1999 to develop the detailed structure of a regional programme on aquaculture for sustainable rural development and propose a strategy for its implementation the consultation took an overview of the relevant information emerging form presentations of country reports lessons learned by specific projects experiences of regional and international organizations and donor agencies and findings of expert reviews more sharply focused examination of critical issues and discussions on specific components of the draft programme concept were followed through parallel working group wg discussions this workshop was held to generate inputs and guidance to the contents and process of developing an assistance programme for fisheries and aquaculture the programme s overall goal is to ensure that responsible and sustainable use of fisheries and aquaculture resources make an appreciable contribution to human well being food security and poverty alleviation the workshop stressed the need to include fisheries and aquaculture especially the small scale subsectors into poverty alleviation food security and disaster risk reduction policies and programmes these should be informed by a human rights approach to development the challenges to advance the poverty alleviation and food security agendas are considerable concerted efforts and partnerships at different levels and scales are needed and interventions should be firmly anchored in the regional national and local context it is vital to build up national and local ownership in accordance with the paris declaration and this should be a key requirement for the inception phase and beyond
